

Austin Health Sciences Library

Snapshot 2024

Liz Harris
January 2025

The Year in numbers

- Visitors through the door : 62,515 27% increase
- Assisted via the counter and email: 3,708 58% increase
- 1:1 training consultations: 300 50% increase
- Group training : sessions: 74 attendees: 980
- Print book loans: 1,562 230% increase
- Journal articles: Requested: 682 Supplied: 748
- Website visits: 112,992
- Room and booth bookings: 1,527

Comparison to 2023 numbers

Major improvement projects

- Single sign on (SSO) implementation
Streamlined off-site access to Library resources
- Improved access & content of website
Redesigned Library website and expanded content
- Leisure and wellbeing book collections
Curated by the Library to support all Austin staff
- Austin Library Bulletin review
Content and design refresh
- Document Delivery database upgrade
New system to increase efficiency of interlibrary loans
- Increased training consultations
300+ 1:1 training consultations with staff & students
- Library eLearning on ATLAS
Embedded 3 education modules into ATLAS
- Expanded library education webinar topics
Delivered broad range of literature and clinical tool training
- Updated print book collection
Aligned books to strategic goals and increased loans
- Makeover of Library space
New meeting rooms, refreshed space & increased visitors

Timely access to high quality care

A great place to learn, work and grow

Research activities that improve patient outcomes

Listen to what our patients and community say

Culturally safe services for Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Peoples

Technology and infrastructure support patient care